Your Confidentiality Guarantee

Please note that all your information and everything we discuss will be treated in the strictest confidence, in alignment and subject to the POPI Act.

You also acknowledge, consent to and understand that our primary goal is to provide care for and protect the best interests of your child, our client, in all matters affecting them, in accordance with the guidelines of the Bill of Rights within the SA Constitution, and the Children's Act 38 of 2005, as amended.

Our ultimate and primary goal is to assist your child, our client, in reaching their personal goals of spiritual and physical wellness and prosperity. Should we at any time during our journey feel that it will be beneficial for them to seek medical assistance from any specialists such as psychiatrists, psychologists, or medical doctors, we will partner with you and your child to reach out to those professionals best suited for their ultimate wellbeing, subject to the conditions stipulated in the Children's Act 38 of 2005, as amended, and journey alongside them in reaching their personal goals of spiritual and physical wellness and prosperity.

You acknowledge that we as CPSC Registered Pastoral Counsellors are not Psychologists or Psychiatrists, and as Pastoral Counsellors, are here to travel alongside your child, empowering your child to self-sufficiency, and you hereby indemnify us from any claim for damages of any nature arising from our sessions, and that you take full responsibility for any decisions you and your child may make or take regarding your own or their life. You further acknowledge to understand that we are mandated to report any activities we identify as being in contravention of the Sexual Offences and Related Matters Act 32 of 2007, Children's Act 38 of 2005 as well as the Domestic Violence Act 116 of 1998, or any indications that your child intends to harm themselves or others.
